Dear Ed,

The NY treadmill left no time and I'm exhausted. One day ended 4:30 a.m., another I ha lunch at 8:30, got home late last night and leave again in a.m. Couldn't phone.

Glad to get the extra clip of the Times nausea. I had been sent a stat by an extremist of the right, wrote a letter of which Jerry has copies, and he today told me my letter seems to have troubled Leonard deeply and that he plans some rectification.

That American Scholar bit is the least of Kaplan. He failed to answer me then. He was Tom Clark's law clerk (and who was A.G. at the time of t is work?), was in the criminal division of Justice (and where wasall this done?), defended the Warren Commission in his Ruby book (which had stupid errors of fact). Need more? I don't think Leonard will.

I've tackled some of the other whores and sycophants. Jerry will have copies.

Nothing else really new. Best and thanks,

Hal
